Charleston 2017

BOONE PLANTATION

Plan 2A Includes 2 nights hotel & tax PLUS Narrated City Tour by Horse-Drawn Carriage: Old South Charleston Carriage Tours takes you back in time to learn about the city's rich and unique history. This relaxing tour is one of the best ways to see the Holy City, which encompasses some of the most well preserved architecture and gardens from the Colonial and antebellum eras. The 50-60 minute narrated tour travels approximately 2.5 miles as it covers 30 blocks of the historic district, where you will view landscaped gardens, antebellum mansions, churches and other treasured landmarks. Once the carriage departs the stable at 14 Anson St., the specific route is randomly assigned by the City of Charleston. All carriage companies are governed by the same system in order to disperse the carriage traffic more evenly throughout the city.

Plan 3A Includes 3 nights hotel & tax PLUS Narrated City Tour by Horse-Drawn Carriage, as described above, plus...Boone Hall Plantation Tour with Gray Line. Visit Boone Hall Plantation, one of America's oldest working plantations. This beautiful gem is nestled in Mount Pleasant, across the harbor from Charleston. Enter through the Avenue of Oaks and take a guided tour of the historic mansion. Enjoy a self-guided tour through the original slave cabins and learn about the African American experience with a presentation
